Caterpillars from which the dread brown tailed moth comes have been found in Lyndonville. These moths are one of the most dreaded of pests. They are very pretty to look at, but are poisonous, causing people to break out with a disagreeable eczema. They also strip the trees bare of leaves, leaving them as forlorn as in winter time.

Carroll Stephens and Williams Day of Barre Town were arrested last evening by Officer Carle, Special Officer Peter Thom and Deputy Sheriff Camp. The two had been driving about the city in a reckless manner and the officers finally caught the team opposite the national bank. This morning in city court Stephens and Day both pleaded guilty to intoxication. A fine and costs amounting to $14.49 for each was imposed and they hoped to settle for their little circus performance.

ST. GAUDENS STILL AT WORK.

Noted Sculptor Not So Ill As Was Reported.

Winsoor, July 7.—Augustus S. Gaudens, the sculptor, who is at his summer home in Cornish, N. H., and who has been in ill health for some time, was finally at work when seen yesterday.

He has not been confined to the house, as reported, since his arrival at Cornish, a few days ago, and his condition is much improved. The morning at his home it was denied that Mr. St. Gaudens had undergone any operation for the removal of a cancerous growth, and it was stated that recent operations to which he had submitted were of a very slight nature.
